Ethics passed-on knowledge
Juniors with seniors
Seniors watch over juniors
Juniors learn client management ethics training GT concept
No ethical guides
Always
Intuition development
Replicate seniors
shadowing GT concept
Juniors become seniors
Often
Risk sense
Attacker perspective
No rogues
Usually
Contributing breach factors
Cognisant of law
No out-of-scope work
Easy to breach CMA
Double check provided info
legal instincts GT concept
Crime ends career
Ethics imparted by juniors shadowing and being apprenticed by more senior testers.
Shadowing gives juniors the hidden sense of spotting where things might go wrong.
Developing a black hat perspective sheds light of issues that might otherwise remain hidden.
The ease within what laws can be broken sensitises tests to legal issues affecting tests.
Ben